

Miscellaneous – III

1. What is common with Dā'ūd, Nasā'ī, Muslim and Tirmidhī?
2. During the last years of the Prophet, when he was very sick, who did he ask to lead the prayers even though he was present in the congregation?
3. What is known by the term Hajjatul Wida?
4. What did the Prophet say symbolically lie at the feet of a person's mother?
5. Which small sūrah says large crowds would join Islam?
6. One of the Khalīfas ruled for only two years three months and ten days. Who was he?
7. Angel Jibril always brought revelations to the Prophet. But only once he asked him to "read." When was it?
8. When a person performs obligatory Jummua prayer, how many times he would have said 'rabbana lakal hamd'?
9. How many verses does the most frequently recited sūrah contain?
10. The Qur'ān says sawm is prescribed to you as it was prescribed to others. What is meant by the word sawm?
11. Who did the Prophet mainly engage to write down the revelations during the Prophet's lifetime?
12. In which English calendar year (in C.E.) did the Prophet pass away?
13. Abū Bakr emphasized collecting the chapters of the Qur'ān into a book format. Who ultimately completed the compilation?
14. What role did Anthony Quinn play in the famous biographical movie "Muhammad"?
15. Rub al-Khali (lit. Empty Quarters) is a vast barren desert in this country. What is the country?
16. Who is popularly called as Ata Turk or The Father of the Turks?
17. He was a Persian scholar, author of about 450 books on a wide range of subject. His books on medicine were used as text book in European universities for seven centuries. Who was he?