

Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) – II

1. Who was the blind man from whom the Prophet turned away his attention?
2. In this sūrah, the Prophet was disapproved for turning away from a blind man.
3. Altogether, how many wives did the Prophet have in his life?
4. The Prophet undertook an expedition against Roman Emperor Heraclius. Which sūrah deals extensively about this expedition?
5. Revelation of this complete sūrah indicated that the Prophet might pass away soon afterwards.
6. After paying 40 ounces of gold and planting 300 date palms, this person was freed and became a famous Companion of the Prophet. Who was he?
7. After Khadījah died, the Prophet married a widow, who would take care of his children. Who was she?
8. What was the relationship between Ruqayyah, Al-Qāsim and Al-Tāhir.
9. Who was the very last woman to be included as wife of the Prophet?
10. In a famous battle, the Prophet fell down and was almost killed. He lost one of his teeth. What was that battle?
11. The Prophet used to like this product, but in order to make him dislike the product, some of his wives told him when he ate it his mouth had bad breath. What was the product?
12. The disbelievers in Makkah used to blame the Prophet were a Kāhin. What did they mean?
13. Madīnah is located north of Makkah, but during his migration to Madīnah, the Prophet fled in a different direction. What was that direction?
14. The Prophet married daughters of two of the future Caliphs. One was Abū Bakr's daughter. Name the other Caliph and his daughter.
15. During the battle of Khandaq, the Prophet used a unique battle strategy. What was the strategy?
16. The Prophet had a long discussion with famous Christian delegates who came to question him about Jesus and other aspects of Islam. From which place did these delegates come?